

THE INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRY TUBEROUS SCLEROSIS CLINIC

A specialist Behavioural Tuberos Sclerosis Clinic operates under the auspices of Professor Patrick Bolton, Consultant in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, and Professor Declan Murphy, Consultant Psychiatrist. The clinic is available to both children and adults with or without a learning disability and offers assessment, advice and treatment for behavioural problems.

The clinic is held on an as required basis, but at least once or twice a month and is by appointment only and held at:

Outpatient- Maudsley Hospital,
Denmark Hill, London
Inpatients- Bethlem Royal Hospital,
West Wickham, Kent

The role of the clinic is to:

1. Advise on behavioural management of Tuberos Sclerosis
2. Work closely with others to help provide the best care possible

The clinic team includes a variety of personnel, including psychiatrists, psychologists, a child mental health worker and a senior children's social worker. Senior members of the team include Dr Sarah Curran, senior lecturer in psychiatry and behavioural genetics and Dr Kate le Marechal, clinical and research psychologist (currently on maternity leave). Referrals must be made by the local consultant and in some circumstance the patients' GP.

All enquiries should be made to:

Diana Acklom
Professor Bolton's PA
S6DP Building
IOP, De Crespigny Park
London SE5 8AF
Tel 020 78485256

The clinic welcomes enquiries from medical, nursing and paramedical colleagues both in hospital and the community caring for TS patient and their families.
